HAWAIIAN STOCKS IN BOSTON.

J. Q. A. Bunkerhill (at a party) —"Do your folks think Hawaiian securities are a judicious investment?"Miss Oldbay—"Why, yes, I should apprehend they do. Pa has already displayed his confidence in the industrial development of those pearls of the Pacific among our new possessions, known to students of geography as the Hawaiian Islands, by purchasing a not inappreciable amount of Makaweli, also acquiring a moderately large number, each, of Laupahoehoe, Niihii and Oookala shares, besides a somewhat numerous aggregation of the capital stock of a recently organized corporation, devoted like the others I have just mentioned to the production of the saccharine commodity, which, if my utterance of the Hawaiian vernacular is not too faltering, I believe is designated the Ulupalakua Plantation Co., Ltd., the fields whose cultivation it essays to prosecute being, as I am given to understand, situated at the base of the stupendous mountain dome of Haleakala, in the summit of which is enconced the largest extinct volcanic crater upon the surface of this mundane sphere. What a delicious degree of intellectual diversion it has yielded our domestic circle, the disciplining of our comparatively barbaric organs of speech into a tolerable mastery of the dulcet and flowing vocables of that charming language of nature's children!"J. Q. A. B.—"Aw! You don't happen to recollect if he mentioned Kihei?"Miss O.—"Indeed, I think he alluded to a security of somewhat like that cognomen, making the remark that it appeared from his most recent advices to be unap-proachably exalted in the empy-rean."
When plantation promoters can raise the water, there's no trouble about "raising the wind." And the gods will provide the "man with the hoe."

TIT FOR TAT.

Simple Simon met a broker Selling of his shares.
Said Simple Simon to the broker,
"Give me of your wares."
Said the broker to Simple Simon, "You have not an option."
Said Simple Simon to the broker,
"I shall then your shop shun."
Prof. Rolfe asked his University Extension students whether or not great authors revealed their personalities in their writings.
Certainly neither "Old Subscriber," "Constant Reader," "One Who Was Present" nor "More Anon"—the four greatest writers of the Victorian Age—has ever revealed his personality in his works.

New England Bakery and Candy Co.

It is not generally known to the trade that the New England Steam Baking and Candy Co., Hotel street, are able to manufacture all the candies used on these Islands, supplying them fresh and in any quantity desired and at a great saving over San Francisco prices, doing away with freight charges and custom duties, etc. They have just received an order from a large wholesale house here for about two tons of candy of which 75 pairs is boss mixed candy.
The balance covers stick candy, broken stick, chocolate cream drops, gum drops, peppermint, wintergreen and conversation lozenges, acidulated fruit drops, etc. Mr. Lutted the manager takes pleasure in showing samples and quoting prices to the wholesale trade and guarantees to supply same quality of goods and at lower prices than can be purchased elsewhere.The two-year-old son of W. L.
Ferguson, of Bolton, Miss., had whooping cough. "After several physicians had prescribed for him, without giving relief," writes Mr.
Ferguson, "I persuaded my wife to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The first dose had the desired effect, and in forty-eight hours he was entirely free from all cough. I consider your remedy the best in the market, especially for children and recommend it at all times." 50 cent sizes for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., General Agents.

Woman's Meeting.

The Woman's meeting at Kawaiaha yesterday afternoon was attended by between sixty and seventy, this number being made up of Kawaiaha and Kaumaka-pili church ladies who were expecting to hear from Mrs. Kekela, wife of the aged Hawaiian missionary who returned from the Marquesas Islands a short time ago. Unfortunately, this lady could not be present as she was sick in bed with the grip. However, a most interesting meeting was held. Among the speakers of the afternoon were two ladies who have recently arrived here from Japan and who have been doing good work in that country among the natives. Miss Mattie Chamberlain was another speaker.
This lady used the Hawaiian language. The next meeting will be held at Kaumakapili church and the ladies are hoping that they will be able to have Mrs. Kekela with them.The Evening Bulletin gives ALL news for 75 cents a month.
